

 WORKSHOP with Kate Green *****

'Self-Portraits of the Inner You - How Jesus sees you!' - building an image from objective drawing through to an expressive response in paint, stitch & textiles. Something for you to hang at home to remind yourself HOW JESUS SEES THE INNER, REAL YOU!

A time to blend prayer and peace with paint and stitch, to really listen to The Holy Spirit within and re- centre yourself through prayer and paint. No skill set required except the willingness to plug in to memory & imagination and experiment with the textures and colours that express how YOU feel. Bring along snippets of favourite fabric, meaningful buttons, sweet wrappers and photos you might like to incorporate in to your work. Come & remind yourself who JESUS SAYS YOU ARE!! Come and try awakening that part inside us all that the camera can never capture, YOUR uniqueness in Christ. We will build the pieces on blanket+calico bases, adding anything pertinent to YOUR story from sweet wrappers to buttons !

Come and share in a time of creativity & prayer with something to take home to encourage your journey!
