Nelson Mandela Room, (left), overlooks the Convent gardens. This versatile room can be divided by a sliding partition, which can be useful to create a breakout area.

Malala Room, (right), is ideal for meetings of up to eight people. Although set up for smaller groups, the room has ample space for refreshments to be served and makes for a comfortable space for groups to meet.

Emmaus, (left), can accommodate up to eight people around a large table. Overlooking the gardens, this room offers an intimate space for smaller groups to meet.
